To Whom It May Concern:

I'm writing this letter as a testimony to the upbeat, informative, and enjoyable program Dr. Jack Singer presented at our recent General Medical Staff Meeting. As you might imagine, it isn't easy to find speakers who captivate the attention of this very discerning audience. Not only did Dr. Singer keep their attention, our physicians are now asking when we might be able to bring him back to speak again.

If you're looking for a polished orator to will deliver useful and memorable messages that help you and your associates better cope with the challenges in our field, you couldn't ask for a better person.

Sincerely,
